14. Please reflect on yourself in relation to this project mobility. What was the impact on a personal level? What was more challenging?

1. It helped me work better under pressure. The most challenging part was making myself heard
2. for me the most challenging thing was to keep calm in every situation
3. i like every people opinions but i dont like our partners very well
4. I can improve my language and establish a bond with the partner. everything is great
5. I improved my English level
6. Great experience
7. It was a new experience for me, language gap, street rules
8. Throughout this mobility I learned how to be more open with people, work in a team, improved my English, and learned valuable life lessons. The most challenging was trying to make plans with the partners in a way that, at the end of the day, everyone is happy.
9. The challenging thing for me was to think a sentence in my head and the problem is that I just spelled it in a totally different way. I'm lucky they understood me<3
10. For me, it was a great experience that I highly enjoyed. It was my pleasure learning about everyone's cultures and I'd say the hardest part was knowing it would all end in a week
11. It was a very good project. The impact level was 4 out of 5.
12. More challenging was dealing with only girls I think
13. As a personal experience, I really enjoyed working with kids from different countries and learning more about their culture and personality. I don't think I found something to really challenge me that much. No matter the country we came from, we still understood each other after all and had fun! I am looking forward to future projects!
14. It was a fruitful experience for me both about Erasmus and also about experiencing different education systems apart from us.

15. It is a joy and also a new experience every time I am involved in an Erasmus project! Any Erasmus project is itself a challenge, but a beautiful one!
16. I have seen the effects of a different education system from my own country on students.
17. Romanian team Was a ver good hosts. All Was very well.
18. I learnt that Romanian education system is far better than the one in my country.In addition I observed that your school's students' English level is more efficient than ours.I wish i had had some time to observe while you are giving a lecture in the lesson for the exchange of good pracrices.
19. The most challenging part was the communication path but not for all the students. In my opinion we needed more activities which involves team work and collaboration
20. The impact is always positive when you want to learn new things.
21. I couldn't understand her because of my partner's accent. And the disrespectful behavior of some students made me sad. Anyway it was a good experience...
22. Very good experience. Was in a new country
23. IT was a great challenge, especially în the cultural excursions
24. All good
25. Knowing Romanian culture was nice.
26. While the activities were nice, the attitudes and behaviors of some students lowered our mood
27. For me, personally it was a very entertaining and educational experience and I am very glad I got to explore new cultures and learn from different people. The hardest part for me was the long programs, however it was also very enjoyable.
28. It was harder to me to go so far from my country, because i had never left spain before but i adapted quickly
29. The most challenging thing was to work in a team and to succeed in a good collaboration with everyone.
30. Meeting new people and new culture was fine. There were lots of activities to do and we were in a hurry.
31. I take a lot of friends in the teacher team. I'm looking foward to continue working together. Thank you
32. influence circle of friends, improve language. Being in another country which is challenging on a personal level i think this project helped me practice not only my english but also my social skills which i thought would be more challenging
33. I improved my Dijital skills a l little bit my partner didn't deal with me i was alone she even shouted at me
34. For me this project really made me more open to learning about different cultures and working in a group. I enjoyed it very much and I can't wait for a future mobility!
